ECBOE Mid-Term Exemption Policy

- High school students with an average of 75 or above may exempt mid-term exams if they meet the following criteria.
 1. No more than 3 absences during the first term per class period. This means your class alone. Excused and unexcused absences both count toward being able to be exempt or not.
 2. No more than 3 tardies during the first term per class period. This means your class alone. Excused and unexcused tardies both count toward being able to be exempt or not.

Student Attendance During Mid-Terms

Students who are eligible to exempt mid-terms will not be counted absent in those classes from which they are exempt.
